

Fun ways to practise your spellings!

- Rainbow write (each time you practise the word, use a different colour)
- Speed write (how many times can you write the target word in 1 minute?)
- Backwards words (write your words forwards, then backwards)
- Shape words (draw around each word to find its shape)
- Silly sentences (how many of your words can you use in a sentence?)
- Words without vowels (write your words replacing each vowel with a line)
- Words without consonants (write your words replacing each consonant with a line)
- Scrambled words (write your words, then write them again with the letters mixed up. Can anyone solve your anagrams?)
- Wordsearch (make a wordsearch out of your words)
- Crossword (make a crossword out of your words)
- Mnemonic (make mnemonics to go with your words; said = Sally Ann Is Dancing)
- Ransom words (write your words by cutting up letters from newspapers or magazines & sticking them on to the page)
- Pasta words (write your words by arranging alphabet pasta. Take a photo)
- 3D words (use modelling clay rolled thinly to make your words. Take a photo if you can!)
- Scrabble words (can you arrange your words so that common letters criss cross?)
- Magazine words (find your words in an old magazine, cut it out & glue it on)
- Cheer your words (pretend you are a cheerleader & chant the letters in your words)
- Choo-choo words (write the entire list end to end as one long word using different colours for different words)
- Back writing (write your words on someone's back and see if they can guess each one)
- Secret agent words (number the alphabet from 1-26 and write your words in code)